

May

Thursday 1st MayExhibitions*A Century of West Lothian Women, During library opening ours, free

A display of photographs and objects showing the changes in women's lives during the twentieth century.

Whitburn Community Museum, Whitburn Library, Union Road, Whitburn, 01506 776347

Banners and Benefits – Exhibition (26 Feb- 17 May), free

Tues & Thu: 14.00 – 18:30 Wed: 9.30 - 12.30 & 13.30 – 16:30

Discover the colourful heritage of West Lothian's Friendly Societies in a display at Blackridge Community Museum.

Blackridge Community Museum, Craig Inn Centre, Blackridge, 01506 776347

Derek Robertson Exhibition (1st – 31st May)

Fine art limited prints of his time spent on the Forth Islands

The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick, 01620 890 202

Ferocious and Feathered Exhibition (1st- 31st May)

What do a Tyrannosaurus and a Magpie have in common? Could the terrifying Velociraptor really be related to a chicken? Visit this new exhibition and find out why scientists believe that not all dinosaurs died out and infact are more common than you think. Free with admission to the Discovery Centre.

The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick, 01620 890 202

Music and danceFolk Session 20:00

Folk music evening

The Auld Hole in the Wall, Linlithgow High Street

TheatreAbigail's Party 19:30, £10.50 (£8.50) under 18s £6.00

London Classic Theatre perform Mike Leigh's modern classic

Brunton Theatre, Ladywell Way, Musselburgh, 0131 665 2240

Ceilidh

What's on

Lothians

ComedyFood & Drink*MiscellaneousFriday 2nd MayExhibitions*Derek Robertson Exhibition (1st – 31st May)

Fine art limited prints of his time spent on the Forth Islands

The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick, 01620 890 202

Ferocious and Feathered Exhibition (1st- 31st May)

What do a Tyrannosaurus and a Magpie have in common? Could the terrifying Velociraptor really be related to a chicken? Visit this new exhibition and find out why scientists believe that not all dinosaurs died out and infact are more common than you think. Free with admission to the Discovery Centre.

The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick, 01620 890 202

A Century of West Lothian Women, During library opening ours, free

A display of photographs and objects showing the changes in women's lives during the twentieth century.

Whitburn Community Museum, Whitburn Library, Union Road, Whitburn, 01506 776347

Music and danceTheatre*Abigail's Party 19:30, £10.50 (£8.50) under 18s £6.00

London Classic Theatre perform Mike Leigh's modern classic

Brunton Theatre, Ladywell Way, Musselburgh, 0131 665 2240

CeilidhComedy*Food & Drink*Miscellaneous

For further information on events, please visit www.edinburgh.org

The information contained in this publication is as supplied to VisitScotland and to the best of the organisation's knowledge was correct. VisitScotland can accept no responsibility for any errors or omissions.

Musselburgh Race Meeting, door 12:00,£15 (£10)

Flat race meeting

Musselburgh Race Course, Linkfield Road, Musselburgh.
0131 665 2859

Fridays at Two 14:00 Free

A deputy and his lamps. Run by ex miner and Scottish Mining Museum guide, John Kane.

Scottish Mining Museum, Newtongrange, EH22 4QN

Saturday 3RD May

Exhibitions

A Century of West Lothian Women, During library opening ours, free

A display of photographs and objects showing the changes in women's lives during the twentieth century.

Whitburn Community Museum, Whitburn Library, Union Road, Whitburn, 01506 776347

Ferocious and Feathered Exhibition (1st- 31st May)

What do a Tyrannosaurus and a Magpie have in common? Could the terrifying Velociraptor really be related to a chicken? Visit this new exhibition and find out why scientists believe that not all dinosaurs died out and infact are more common than you think. Free with admission to the Discovery Centre.

The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick, 01620 890 202

Derek Robertson Exhibition (1st – 31st May)

Fine art limited prints of his time spent on the Forth Islands

The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick, 01620 890 202

Sea Change (3 May – 29 June) 11:00-16:00, Free

Sea Change is a sensuous and powerful exhibition of sculpture and mosaics by Susheila Jamieson. The exhibition takes its inspiration from the coast around Prestongrange and Cockenzie Power Station in East Lothian and alludes to the impact of climate change.

Prestongrange Museum, Morrison's Haven, Prestonpans, 0131 653 2904

Music and dance

Burnsong 19:30, £14 (£12)

National project dedicated to promoting, encouraging and nurturing songwriting in Scotland

Brunton Theatre, Ladywell Way, Musselburgh, 0131 665 2240

Theatre

Ceilidh

Comedy

Food & Drink

Children

Spinning Around, 11:00-12:00, Free

Join us to find out more about John Muir the Inventor as we look at the not-too-serious science of the senses! Suitable for families

John Muir's Birthplace, 126 High Street, Dunbar, 01368 865899

Way to Go!, 14:00-16:00, Free

Discover more about John Muir the Inventor through this science on wheels demonstration!

John Muir's Birthplace, 126 High Street, Dunbar, 01368 865899

Miscellaneous

Second World War Days, 10:00-17:00, £6 (£5)

Take a nostalgic trip back in time. See the vehicles that were used at East Fortune airfield, home of our National Museum of Flight, during the Second world war. Hear the roar of their powerful engines! You'll have the opportunity to meet and watch characters from the 1940s as they perform lifestyle re-enactments, which will give you a flavour of what it was like to live and work at East Fortune during the 1940s.

Museum of Flight, East Fortune, 0870 421 4299

Burgh Beautiful Fun Dog Show 13.30 Free

A fun-packed afternoon for all the family, with rides, stalls, displays, obedience teaching, Dog MOT and classes such as waggiest tail, best junior handler, cutest puppy, sit and stay, etc. (Joint event with Linlithgow Burgh Beautiful).

Linlithgow Palace, Linlithgow, West Lothian

1st Annual Fly Fishing Competition 10:00-15:00 £25.00 per rod.

Torphichen Children's Galaday 1908-Centenary-2008 present. Held at Bowden Springs Fishery. . Limited places, book early.

Contact Iain Black at 20 Greenside, Torphichen or call 01506 655350 for details.

Come and Try It – Orienteering 13.30 small charge for maps

Have fun on the run . . . stretch your legs and your mind in the beautiful environs of Vogrie Country Park. Courses from easy to strenuous are available.

Main car park, Vogrie Country Park, Midlothian

Plant Sale 10:00

St Peter's 153 High Street, Linlithgow, West Lothian

Sunday 4th May

Exhibitions

Ferocious and Feathered Exhibition (1st-31st May)

What do a Tyrannosaurus and a Magpie have in common? Could the terrifying Velociraptor really be related to a chicken? Visit this new exhibition and find out why scientists believe that not all dinosaurs died out and infact are more common than you think. Free with admission to the Discovery Centre.

The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick, 01620 890 202

Derek Robertson Exhibition (1st – 31st May)

Fine art limited prints of his time spent on the Forth Islands

For further information on events , please visit www.edinburgh.org

The information contained in this publication is as supplied to VisitScotland and to the best of the organisation's knowledge was correct. VisitScotland can accept no responsibility for any errors or omissions.

Live well. Live long. Recycle.

Sea Change (3 May – 29 June) 11:00-16:00, Free

Sea Change is a sensuous and powerful exhibition of sculpture and mosaics by Susheila Jamieson. The exhibition takes its inspiration from the coast around Prestongrange and Cockenzie Power Station in East Lothian and alludes to the impact of climate change.
Prestongrange Museum, Morrison's Haven, Prestonpans,
0131 653 2904

Music and dance

Theatre

Ceilidh

Comedy

Food & Drink

Children

Way to Go!, 14:00-16:00, Free

Discover more about John Muir the Inventor through this science on wheels demonstration!
John Muir's Birthplace, 126 High Street, Dunbar, 01368
865899

Miscellaneous

Second World War Days, 10:00-17:00, £6 (£5)

Take a nostalgic trip back in time. See the vehicles that were used at East Fortune airfield, home of our National Museum of Flight, during the Second world war. Hear the roar of their powerful engines! You'll have the opportunity to meet and watch characters from the 1940s as they perform lifestyle re-enactments, which will give you a flavour of what it was like to live and work at East Fortune during the 1940s.

Museum of Flight, East Fortune, 0870 421 4299

Berwick and East Lothian Car Rally 09.30 start

Starting in Berwick upon Tweed the Sunday route will follow a 110 mile route with 15 long special tests and one jogularity in Berwickshire and East Lothian. The first car should reach the finish at Whitekirk Golf and Country Club by 17.00 hrs for the legendary meal and prize giving.

Morning Bird Chorus 04.30 £3.70-£2.20

Get up nice and early to listen to the birds and celebrate nature's daily miracle – the dawn chorus.
Walled Garden Car Park, Hopetoun House, South Queensferry

Ooops... a re-enactment of nasty mishaps down a shale mine

A light-hearted afternoon of family fun with some frenetic first aid that will leave the audience in stitches, splints and elevated slings.

Almond Valley Heritage Trust, Millfield, Livingston

Boat Trip 13:00-16:00 £2.50-£1.50

The trips, on "Bluebell", will last about 25 minutes and during this time passengers will be told about the Union Canal and tea, coffee, juice & crisps will be on sale.
For more details, please phone 01506 417685
Port Buchan, Broxburn

Monday 5th May

Exhibitions

Derek Robertson Exhibition (1st – 31st May)

Fine art limited prints of his time spent on the Forth Islands
The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick,
01620 890 202

Ferocious and Feathered Exhibition (1st-31st May) Fero

What do a Tyrannosaurus and a Magpie have in common? Could the terrifying Velociraptor really be related to a chicken? Visit this new exhibition and find out why scientists believe that not all dinosaurs died out and infact are more common than you think. Free with admission to the Discovery Centre.

The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick,
01620 890 202

Sea Change (3 May – 29 June) 11:00-16:00, Free

Sea Change is a sensuous and powerful exhibition of sculpture and mosaics by Susheila Jamieson. The exhibition takes its inspiration from the coast around Prestongrange and Cockenzie Power Station in East Lothian and alludes to the impact of climate change.
Prestongrange Museum, Morrison's Haven, Prestonpans,
0131 653 2904

Music and dance

Theatre

Ceilidh

Comedy

Food & Drink

Miscellaneous

Tuesday 6th May

Exhibitions

Banners and Benefits – Exhibition (26 Feb- 17 May), free

Tues & Thu: 14.00 – 18:30 Wed: 9.30 - 12.30 & 13.30 – 16:30

Discover the colourful heritage of West Lothian's Friendly Societies in a display at Blackridge Community Museum.
Blackridge Community Museum, Craig Inn Centre,
Blackridge, 01506 776347

Derek Robertson Exhibition (1st – 31st May)

Fine art limited prints of his time spent on the Forth Islands
The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick,
01620 890 202

For further information on events , please visit www.edinburgh.org

The information contained in this publication is as supplied to VisitScotland and to the best of the organisation's knowledge was correct. VisitScotland can accept no responsibility for any errors or omissions.

Ferocious and Feathered Exhibition (1st- 31st May)

What do a Tyrannosaurus and a Magpie have in common? Could the terrifying Velociraptor really be related to a chicken? Visit this new exhibition and find out why scientists believe that not all dinosaurs died out and infact are more common than you think. Free with admission to the Discovery Centre.

The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick, 01620 890 202

Sea Change (3 May – 29 June) 11:00-16:00, Free

Sea Change is a sensuous and powerful exhibition of sculpture and mosaics by Susheila Jamieson. The exhibition takes its inspiration from the coast around Prestongrange and Cockenzie Power Station in East Lothian and alludes to the impact of climate change. Prestongrange Museum, Morrison's Haven, Prestonpans, 0131 653 2904

Music and dance

Theatre

Ceilidh

Comedy

Food & Drink

Miscellaneous

Wednesday 7th May

Exhibitions

Banners and Benefits – Exhibition (26 Feb- 17 May), free

Tues & Thu: 14.00 – 18:30 Wed: 9.30 - 12.30 & 13.30 – 16:30

Discover the colourful heritage of West Lothian's Friendly Societies in a display at Blackridge Community Museum.

Blackridge Community Museum, Craig Inn Centre, Blackridge, 01506 776347

Derek Robertson Exhibition (1st – 31st May)

Fine art limited prints of his time spent on the Forth Islands
The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick, 01620 890 202

Ferocious and Feathered Exhibition (1st-31st May) Fero

What do a Tyrannosaurus and a Magpie have in common? Could the terrifying Velociraptor really be related to a chicken? Visit this new exhibition and find out why scientists believe that not all dinosaurs died out and infact are more common than you think. Free with admission to the Discovery Centre.

The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick, 01620 890 202

Sea Change (3 May – 29 June) 11:00-16:00, Free

Sea Change is a sensuous and powerful exhibition of sculpture and mosaics by Susheila Jamieson. The exhibition takes its inspiration from the coast around

Prestongrange and Cockenzie Power Station in East Lothian and alludes to the impact of climate change. Prestongrange Museum, Morrison's Haven, Prestonpans, 0131 653 2904

Music and dance

Theatre

Bye Bye Birdie, 19:30, £5.00 (£4.00)

Final year students from Queen Margaret University perform this feel good musical. Set in 1959 around rock 'n' roll superstar Conrad Birdie.

Brunton Theatre, Ladywell Way, Musselburgh, 0131 665 2240

Ceilidh

Comedy

Food & Drink

Miscellaneous

Thursday 8th May

Exhibitions

Banners and Benefits – Exhibition (26 Feb- 17 May), free

Tues & Thu: 14.00 – 18:30 Wed: 9.30 - 12.30 & 13.30 – 16:30

Discover the colourful heritage of West Lothian's Friendly Societies in a display at Blackridge Community Museum.

Blackridge Community Museum, Craig Inn Centre, Blackridge, 01506 776347

Derek Robertson Exhibition (1st – 31st May)

Fine art limited prints of his time spent on the Forth Islands
The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick, 01620 890 202

Ferocious and Feathered Exhibition (1st- 31st May)

What do a Tyrannosaurus and a Magpie have in common? Could the terrifying Velociraptor really be related to a chicken? Visit this new exhibition and find out why scientists believe that not all dinosaurs died out and infact are more common than you think. Free with admission to the Discovery Centre.

The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick, 01620 890 202

Sea Change (3 May – 29 June) 11:00-16:00, Free

Sea Change is a sensuous and powerful exhibition of sculpture and mosaics by Susheila Jamieson. The exhibition takes its inspiration from the coast around Prestongrange and Cockenzie Power Station in East Lothian and alludes to the impact of climate change. Prestongrange Museum, Morrison's Haven, Prestonpans, 0131 653 2904

Music and dance

Theatre

Bye Bye Birdie, 19:30, £5.00 (£4.00)

For further information on events, please visit www.edinburgh.org

The information contained in this publication is as supplied to VisitScotland and to the best of the organisation's knowledge was correct. VisitScotland can accept no responsibility for any errors or omissions.

Live well. Live long. Recycle.

Final year students from Queen Margaret University perform this feel good musical. Set in 1959 around rock 'n' roll superstar Conrad Birdie.

Brunton Theatre, Ladywell Way, Musselburgh, 0131 665 2240

Ceilidh

Comedy

Food & Drink

Miscellaneous

The Desert Woods to Wallace's Cave 13:30 £2.00-£1.00

Join the Ranger as we explore this little known entity hidden away in the Avon Gorge. Book: 01506 844516

Walking on rough tracks. Approx. 5km (3mils) / 2 ½ hrs.

Meet at the Visitor Centre, Beeccraigs Country Park.

Friday 9TH May

Exhibitions

Derek Robertson Exhibition (1st – 31st May)

Fine art limited prints of his time spent on the Forth Islands

The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick, 01620 890 202

Ferocious and Feathered Exhibition (1st- 31st May)

What do a Tyrannosaurus and a Magpie have in common? Could the terrifying Velociraptor really be related to a chicken? Visit this new exhibition and find out why scientists believe that not all dinosaurs died out and infact are more common than you think. Free with admission to the Discovery Centre.

The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick, 01620 890 202

Sea Change (3 May – 29 June) 11:00-16:00, Free

Sea Change is a sensuous and powerful exhibition of sculpture and mosaics by Susheila Jamieson. The exhibition takes its inspiration from the coast around Prestongrange and Cockenzie Power Station in East Lothian and alludes to the impact of climate change.

Prestongrange Museum, Morrison's Haven, Prestonpans, 0131 653 2904

Music and dance

The Scottish Flute Trio 19:30, £13 (£11)

Performance of a newly commissioned piece by David Fennessy. With The Curve Foundation Dance Company.

Brunton Theatre, Main Hall, Ladywell Way, Musselburgh, 0131 665 2240

Theatre

Bye Bye Birdie, 19:30, £5.00 (£4.00)

Final year students from Queen Margaret University perform this feel good musical. Set in 1959 around rock 'n' roll superstar Conrad Birdie.

Brunton Theatre, Ladywell Way, Musselburgh, 0131 665 2240

Ceilidh

Comedy

Food & Drink

Miscellaneous

Saturday 10th May

Exhibitions

Derek Robertson Exhibition (1st – 31st May)

Fine art limited prints of his time spent on the Forth Islands

The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick, 01620 890 202

Sea Change (3 May – 29 June) 11:00-16:00, Free

Sea Change is a sensuous and powerful exhibition of sculpture and mosaics by Susheila Jamieson. The exhibition takes its inspiration from the coast around Prestongrange and Cockenzie Power Station in East Lothian and alludes to the impact of climate change.
Prestongrange Museum, Morrison's Haven, Prestonpans, 0131 653 2904

Ferocious and Feathered Exhibition (1st- 31st May)

What do a Tyrannosaurus and a Magpie have in common? Could the terrifying Velociraptor really be related to a chicken? Visit this new exhibition and find out why scientists believe that not all dinosaurs died out and infact are more common than you think. Free with admission to the Discovery Centre.

The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick, 01620 890 202

Music and dance

Michael Marra in Concert 20:00 £12.00-£10.00

Tickets can be obtained from: Howden Park Centre Box Office Tel: 01506 433634

Linlithgow Academy Theatre, Braehead Road, Linlithgow

Linlithgow Jazz Club- Red Hot Warmers (Paris) 20:00

Membership subscriptions for 2008 (£5.00 single or double) can be paid on your first visit to the club in 2008. Please phone 01506 848821 for individual prices of events.

Burgh Halls, Linlithgow

Theatre

Bye Bye Birdie, 14:00, 19:30, £5.00 (£4.00)

Final year students from Queen Margaret University perform this feel good musical. Set in 1959 around rock 'n' roll superstar Conrad Birdie.

Brunton Theatre, Ladywell Way, Musselburgh, 0131 665 2240

Ceilidh

Comedy

Food & Drink

Miscellaneous

25th Penicuik 10K Road Race 14:15

Bog Road Penicuik

For further information on events, please visit www.edinburgh.org

The information contained in this publication is as supplied to VisitScotland and to the best of the organisation's knowledge was correct. VisitScotland can accept no responsibility for any errors or omissions.

Sunday 11th May

Exhibitions

Derek Robertson Exhibition (1st – 31st May)

Fine art limited prints of his time spent on the Forth Islands
The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick,
01620 890 202

Ferocious and Feathered Exhibition (1st - 31st May)

What do a Tyrannosaurus and a Magpie have in common? Could the terrifying Velociraptor really be related to a chicken? Visit this new exhibition and find out why scientists believe that not all dinosaurs died out and in fact are more common than you think. Free with admission to the Discovery Centre.

The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick,
01620 890 202

Sea Change (3 May – 29 June) 11:00-16:00, Free

Sea Change is a sensuous and powerful exhibition of sculpture and mosaics by Susheila Jamieson. The exhibition takes its inspiration from the coast around Prestongrange and Cockenzie Power Station in East Lothian and alludes to the impact of climate change.
Prestongrange Museum, Morrison's Haven, Prestonpans,
0131 653 2904

Music and dance

Theatre

Ceilidh

Comedy

Food & Drink

Miscellaneous

Song for a Spring Morning 06:00 Free

Join a ranger to enjoy the dawn chorus at Linlithgow Loch and hopefully learn to recognise some birds by their song.
Linlithgow Palace, Linlithgow, West Lothian

Roslin Mills Walk 13:30 Free

As part of National Mills Weekend, join a ranger-led walk and explore Roslin Glen's explosive past.
Roslin Glen car park, on B7003 between Roslin and Rosewell

Monday 12th May

Exhibitions

Derek Robertson Exhibition (1st – 31st May)

Fine art limited prints of his time spent on the Forth Islands
The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick,
01620 890 202

Ferocious and Feathered Exhibition (1st - 31st May)

What do a Tyrannosaurus and a Magpie have in common? Could the terrifying Velociraptor really be related to a chicken? Visit this new exhibition and find out why scientists believe that not all dinosaurs died out and in fact are more common than you think. Free with admission to the Discovery Centre.

The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick,
01620 890 202

Sea Change (3 May – 29 June) 11:00-16:00, Free

Sea Change is a sensuous and powerful exhibition of sculpture and mosaics by Susheila Jamieson. The exhibition takes its inspiration from the coast around Prestongrange and Cockenzie Power Station in East Lothian and alludes to the impact of climate change.
Prestongrange Museum, Morrison's Haven, Prestonpans,
0131 653 2904

Music and dance

Theatre

Ceilidh

Comedy

Food & Drink

Miscellaneous

Tuesday 13th May

Exhibitions

Banners and Benefits – Exhibition (26 Feb- 17 May), free

Tues & Thu: 14.00 – 18:30 Wed: 9.30 - 12.30 & 13.30 – 16:30

Discover the colourful heritage of West Lothian's Friendly Societies in a display at Blackridge Community Museum.

Blackridge Community Museum, Craig Inn Centre,
Blackridge, 01506 776347

Derek Robertson Exhibition (1st – 31st May)

Fine art limited prints of his time spent on the Forth Islands
The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick,
01620 890 202

Ferocious and Feathered Exhibition (1st - 31st May)

What do a Tyrannosaurus and a Magpie have in common? Could the terrifying Velociraptor really be related to a chicken? Visit this new exhibition and find out why scientists believe that not all dinosaurs died out and in fact are more common than you think. Free with admission to the Discovery Centre.

The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick,
01620 890 202

Sea Change (3 May – 29 June) 11:00-16:00, Free

Sea Change is a sensuous and powerful exhibition of sculpture and mosaics by Susheila Jamieson. The exhibition takes its inspiration from the coast around Prestongrange and Cockenzie Power Station in East Lothian and alludes to the impact of climate change.
Prestongrange Museum, Morrison's Haven, Prestonpans,
0131 653 2904

For further information on events, please visit www.edinburgh.org

The information contained in this publication is as supplied to VisitScotland and to the best of the organisation's knowledge was correct. VisitScotland can accept no responsibility for any errors or omissions.

Thursday 15th May

Music and dance

Claire Mann & Aaron Jones, 20.15, £7 (£5)

Penicuik Fok Club, Royal Hotel, 34 High Street, Penicuik

Theatre

Ceilidh

Comedy

Food & Drink

Miscellaneous

Wednesday 14th May

Exhibitions

Banners and Benefits – Exhibition (26 Feb- 17 May), free

Tues & Thu: 14.00 – 18:30 Wed: 9.30 - 12.30 & 13.30 – 16:30

Discover the colourful heritage of West Lothian's Friendly Societies in a display at Blackridge Community Museum.

Blackridge Community Museum, Craig Inn Centre, Blackridge, 01506 776347

Derek Robertson Exhibition (1st – 31st May)

Fine art limited prints of his time spent on the Forth Islands
The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick, 01620 890 202

Ferocious and Feathered Exhibition (1st- 31st May)

What do a Tyrannosaurus and a Magpie have in common? Could the terrifying Velociraptor really be related to a chicken? Visit this new exhibition and find out why scientists believe that not all dinosaurs died out and infact are more common than you think. Free with admission to the Discovery Centre.

The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick, 01620 890 202

Sea Change (3 May – 29 June) 11:00-16:00, Free

Sea Change is a sensuous and powerful exhibition of sculpture and mosaics by Susheila Jamieson. The exhibition takes its inspiration from the coast around Prestongrange and Cockenzie Power Station in East Lothian and alludes to the impact of climate change. Prestongrange Museum, Morrison's Haven, Prestonpans, 0131 653 2904

Music and dance

Theatre

Ceilidh

Comedy

Food & Drink

Miscellaneous

Exhibitions

Banners and Benefits – Exhibition (26 Feb- 17 May), free

Tues & Thu: 14.00 – 18:30 Wed: 9.30 - 12.30 & 13.30 – 16:30

Discover the colourful heritage of West Lothian's Friendly Societies in a display at Blackridge Community Museum.

Blackridge Community Museum, Craig Inn Centre, Blackridge, 01506 776347

Derek Robertson Exhibition (1st – 31st May)

Fine art limited prints of his time spent on the Forth Islands
The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick, 01620 890 202

Ferocious and Feathered Exhibition (1st- 31st May)

What do a Tyrannosaurus and a Magpie have in common? Could the terrifying Velociraptor really be related to a chicken? Visit this new exhibition and find out why scientists believe that not all dinosaurs died out and infact are more common than you think. Free with admission to the Discovery Centre.

The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick, 01620 890 202

Sea Change (3 May – 29 June) 11:00-16:00, Free

Sea Change is a sensuous and powerful exhibition of sculpture and mosaics by Susheila Jamieson. The exhibition takes its inspiration from the coast around Prestongrange and Cockenzie Power Station in East Lothian and alludes to the impact of climate change. Prestongrange Museum, Morrison's Haven, Prestonpans, 0131 653 2904

Music and dance

Theatre

The Wasp Factory 19:30 £10.00-£8.00

Meet Frank Cauldhame - a perfectly ordinary 16 year old serial killer, living on a small island off the north coast and preparing for the arrival of his brother Eric who has escaped from a secure hospital. Age 15+ - the play contains challenging language and imagery
Regal Community Theatre, Bathgate, 01506 433634

Ceilidh

Comedy

Food & Drink

Miscellaneous

Friday 16th May

Exhibitions

Sea Change (3 May – 29 June) 11:00-16:00, Free

For further information on events , please visit www.edinburgh.org

The information contained in this publication is as supplied to VisitScotland and to the best of the organisation's knowledge was correct. VisitScotland can accept no responsibility for any errors or omissions.

Live well. Live long. Recycle.

Sea Change is a sensuous and powerful exhibition of sculpture and mosaics by Susheila Jamieson. The exhibition takes its inspiration from the coast around Prestongrange and Cockenzie Power Station in East Lothian and alludes to the impact of climate change.
Prestongrange Museum, Morrison's Haven, Prestonpans, 0131 653 2904

Derek Robertson Exhibition (1st – 31st May)

Fine art limited prints of his time spent on the Forth Islands
The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick, 01620 890 202

Ferocious and Feathered Exhibition (1st- 31st May)

What do a Tyrannosaurus and a Magpie have in common? Could the terrifying Velociraptor really be related to a chicken? Visit this new exhibition and find out why scientists believe that not all dinosaurs died out and infact are more common than you think. Free with admission to the Discovery Centre.

The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick, 01620 890 202

Music and dance

Theatre

Ceilidh

Care and Repair Charitable Trust Ceilidh, 19:30, £6.50

Corn Exchange, Haddington, 01620 828437

Comedy

Food & Drink

Miscellaneous

Science Vs Supernatural at the Lady Vic £40.00 23:00

History tour of the colliery followed by Scientific and Supernatural Experiments throughout the night with paranormal investigators! Tickets priced £40 available from Mercat Tours on 0131 225 5445 or the Scottish Mining Museum 0131 663 7519.

Scottish Mining Museum, Newtongrange, EH22 4QN

Saturday 17th May

Exhibitions

Derek Robertson Exhibition (1st – 31st May)

Fine art limited prints of his time spent on the Forth Islands
The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick, 01620 890 202

Ferocious and Feathered Exhibition (1st- 31st May)

What do a Tyrannosaurus and a Magpie have in common? Could the terrifying Velociraptor really be related to a chicken? Visit this new exhibition and find out why scientists believe that not all dinosaurs died out and infact are more common than you think. Free with admission to the Discovery Centre.

The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick, 01620 890 202

Sea Change (3 May – 29 June) 11:00-16:00, Free

Sea Change is a sensuous and powerful exhibition of sculpture and mosaics by Susheila Jamieson. The exhibition takes its inspiration from the coast around Prestongrange and Cockenzie Power Station in East Lothian and alludes to the impact of climate change.
Prestongrange Museum, Morrison's Haven, Prestonpans, 0131 653 2904

Music and dance

Theatre

Ceilidh

Comedy

Food & Drink

Bathgate Farmers Market 09:00-13:00

The Steelyard, Bathgate

Miscellaneous

Nursery Open Day & Minibeast Hunt 10:00 Free

We've a brilliant range of bedding plants and a few sundries for sale. Why not bring the kids too and hunt for minibeasts with the ranger service in this beautiful 19th-century walled garden?

Walled Garden, at main car park, Vogrie Country Park

Sunday 18th May

Exhibitions

Derek Robertson Exhibition (1st – 31st May)

Fine art limited prints of his time spent on the Forth Islands
The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick, 01620 890 202

Ferocious and Feathered Exhibition (1st- 31st May)

What do a Tyrannosaurus and a Magpie have in common? Could the terrifying Velociraptor really be related to a chicken? Visit this new exhibition and find out why scientists believe that not all dinosaurs died out and infact are more common than you think. Free with admission to the Discovery Centre.

The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick, 01620 890 202

Sea Change (3 May – 29 June) 11:00-16:00, Free

Sea Change is a sensuous and powerful exhibition of sculpture and mosaics by Susheila Jamieson. The exhibition takes its inspiration from the coast around Prestongrange and Cockenzie Power Station in East Lothian and alludes to the impact of climate change.
Prestongrange Museum, Morrison's Haven, Prestonpans, 0131 653 2904

Music and dance

Theatre

Ceilidh

For further information on events , please visit www.edinburgh.org

The information contained in this publication is as supplied to VisitScotland and to the best of the organisation's knowledge was correct. VisitScotland can accept no responsibility for any errors or omissions.

Comedy

Food & Drink

Miscellaneous

Newhailes Environment Fair 11:00 TBC

Stalls from all sorts of environmental organisations plus crafts, entertainments and lots more fun to be had - don't miss out!

Newhailes, Musselburgh, East Lothian

Monday 19th May

Exhibitions

Derek Robertson Exhibition (1st – 31st May)

Fine art limited prints of his time spent on the Forth Islands
The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick,
01620 890 202

Ferocious and Feathered Exhibition (1st - 31st May)

What do a Tyrannosaurus and a Magpie have in common? Could the terrifying Velociraptor really be related to a chicken? Visit this new exhibition and find out why scientists believe that not all dinosaurs died out and infact are more common than you think. Free with admission to the Discovery Centre.

The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick,
01620 890 202

Sea Change (3 May – 29 June) 11:00-16:00, Free

Sea Change is a sensuous and powerful exhibition of sculpture and mosaics by Susheila Jamieson. The exhibition takes its inspiration from the coast around Prestongrange and Cockenzie Power Station in East Lothian and alludes to the impact of climate change.
Prestongrange Museum, Morrison's Haven, Prestonpans,
0131 653 2904

Music and dance

Theatre

Ceilidh

Comedy

Food & Drink

Miscellaneous

Musselburgh Race Meeting, door 12:00,£15 (£10)

Edinburgh Holiday Raceday. Flat race meeting
Musselburgh Race Course, Linkfield Road, Musselburgh.
0131 665 2859

Tuesday 20th May

Exhibitions

Derek Robertson Exhibition (1st – 31st May)

Fine art limited prints of his time spent on the Forth Islands

The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick,
01620 890 202

Ferocious and Feathered Exhibition (1st - 31st May)

What do a Tyrannosaurus and a Magpie have in common? Could the terrifying Velociraptor really be related to a chicken? Visit this new exhibition and find out why scientists believe that not all dinosaurs died out and infact are more common than you think. Free with admission to the Discovery Centre.

The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick,
01620 890 202

Sea Change (3 May – 29 June) 11:00-16:00, Free

Sea Change is a sensuous and powerful exhibition of sculpture and mosaics by Susheila Jamieson. The exhibition takes its inspiration from the coast around Prestongrange and Cockenzie Power Station in East Lothian and alludes to the impact of climate change.
Prestongrange Museum, Morrison's Haven, Prestonpans,
0131 653 2904

Music and dance

Almond Valley Folk Club 20:00

Come and join us for a folk music Session
The Tap Shop, Mid Calder Inn, Mid Calder

Theatre

Ceilidh

Comedy

Food & Drink

Musselburgh Race Meeting, door 12:00,£15 (£10)

Flat race meeting
Musselburgh Race Course, Linkfield Road, Musselburgh.
0131 665 2859

Wednesday 21st May

Exhibitions

A Century of West Lothian Women, During library opening ours, free

A display of photographs and objects showing the changes in women's lives during the twentieth century.
Whitburn Community Museum, Whitburn Library, Union Road, Whitburn, 01506 776347

Derek Robertson Exhibition (1st – 31st May)

Fine art limited prints of his time spent on the Forth Islands
The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick,
01620 890 202

Ferocious and Feathered Exhibition (1st - 31st May)

What do a Tyrannosaurus and a Magpie have in common? Could the terrifying Velociraptor really be related to a chicken? Visit this new exhibition and find out why scientists believe that not all dinosaurs died out and infact are more common than you think. Free with admission to the Discovery Centre.

For further information on events , please visit www.edinburgh.org

The information contained in this publication is as supplied to VisitScotland and to the best of the organisation's knowledge was correct. VisitScotland can accept no responsibility for any errors or omissions.

Sea Change (3 May – 29 June) 11:00-16:00, Free

Sea Change is a sensuous and powerful exhibition of sculpture and mosaics by Susheila Jamieson. The exhibition takes its inspiration from the coast around Prestongrange and Cockenzie Power Station in East Lothian and alludes to the impact of climate change.
Prestongrange Museum, Morrison's Haven, Prestonpans,
0131 653 2904

Music and dance

Theatre

Ceilidh

Comedy

Food & Drink

Miscellaneous

Thursday 22nd May

Exhibitions

Derek Robertson Exhibition (1st – 31st May)

Fine art limited prints of his time spent on the Forth Islands
The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick,
01620 890 202

Ferocious and Feathered Exhibition (1st - 31st May)

What do a Tyrannosaurus and a Magpie have in common? Could the terrifying Velociraptor really be related to a chicken? Visit this new exhibition and find out why scientists believe that not all dinosaurs died out and infact are more common than you think. Free with admission to the Discovery Centre.

The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick,
01620 890 202

Sea Change (3 May – 29 June) 11:00-16:00, Free

Sea Change is a sensuous and powerful exhibition of sculpture and mosaics by Susheila Jamieson. The exhibition takes its inspiration from the coast around Prestongrange and Cockenzie Power Station in East Lothian and alludes to the impact of climate change.
Prestongrange Museum, Morrison's Haven, Prestonpans,
0131 653 2904

Music and dance

Theatre

Ceilidh

Comedy

Food & Drink

Miscellaneous

Friday 23rd May

Exhibitions

Derek Robertson Exhibition (1st – 31st May)

Fine art limited prints of his time spent on the Forth Islands
The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick,
01620 890 202

Ferocious and Feathered Exhibition (1st - 31st May)

What do a Tyrannosaurus and a Magpie have in common? Could the terrifying Velociraptor really be related to a chicken? Visit this new exhibition and find out why scientists believe that not all dinosaurs died out and infact are more common than you think. Free with admission to the Discovery Centre.

The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick,
01620 890 202

Sea Change (3 May – 29 June) 11:00-16:00, Free

Sea Change is a sensuous and powerful exhibition of sculpture and mosaics by Susheila Jamieson. The exhibition takes its inspiration from the coast around Prestongrange and Cockenzie Power Station in East Lothian and alludes to the impact of climate change.
Prestongrange Museum, Morrison's Haven, Prestonpans,
0131 653 2904

Music and dance

Jock Johnson 21.30 Free

Jock Johnson are a lively but still laid back acoustic covers band.

The Royal Hotel, 34 High St Penicuik

Theatre

Ceilidh

Comedy

Food & Drink

Miscellaneous

Saturday 24th May

Exhibitions

Derek Robertson Exhibition (1st – 31st May)

Fine art limited prints of his time spent on the Forth Islands
The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick,
01620 890 202

Ferocious and Feathered Exhibition (1st - 31st May)

What do a Tyrannosaurus and a Magpie have in common? Could the terrifying Velociraptor really be related to a chicken? Visit this new exhibition and find out why scientists believe that not all dinosaurs died out and infact are more common than you think. Free with admission to the Discovery Centre.

The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick,
01620 890 202

Sea Change (3 May – 29 June) 11:00-16:00, Free

Sea Change is a sensuous and powerful exhibition of sculpture and mosaics by Susheila Jamieson. The exhibition takes its inspiration from the coast around Prestongrange and Cockenzie Power Station in East Lothian and alludes to the impact of climate change.
Prestongrange Museum, Morrison's Haven, Prestonpans, 0131 653 2904

Music and dance

Theatre

Ceilidh

Comedy

Food & Drink

Linlithgow Farmers Market 10:00-14:00

The Vennel, Linlithgow

Miscellaneous

Nursery Open Day & Minibeast Hunt 10:00 Free

We've a brilliant range of bedding plants and a few sundries for sale. Why not bring the kids too and hunt for minibeasts with the ranger service in this beautiful 19th-century walled garden?

Walled Garden, at main car park, Vogrie Country Park

Song from the sea £8.00-£2.00

This enchanting production returns for everyone aged three and over. A spellbinding blend of puppetry, music and visual storytelling, The Song from the Sea tells the story of Josh, a little boy who lives in a noisy house with a busy family. Tickets available from Cheryl Keenan – 0131 271 3750

Dalkeith Arts Centre, White Hart Street Dalkeith

BRISC Biological Survey 10:30 £3.70-£2.20

We will be assisting enthusiasts, experts and rangers as we check what types of animals, plants, insects and birds live at Hopetoun. No previous experience required.

Education Room, Hopetoun House, South Queensferry

Geology of St Baldred's Cradle 10:00 £10.00

A traverse of this beautiful stretch of East Lothian coast, with an expert guide, takes us through the remains of several volcanoes, telling a story of moving magma and exploding vents.

Tynningame Links car park, 3km NE of Tynningame, East Lothian

Sunday 25th May

Exhibitions

Derek Robertson Exhibition (1st – 31st May)

Fine art limited prints of his time spent on the Forth Islands
The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick, 01620 890 202

Ferocious and Feathered Exhibition (1st- 31st May)

What do a Tyrannosaurus and a Magpie have in common? Could the terrifying Velociraptor really be related to a chicken? Visit this new exhibition and find out why scientists believe that not all dinosaurs died out and infact are more common than you think. Free with admission to the Discovery Centre.

The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick, 01620 890 202

Sea Change (3 May – 29 June) 11:00-16:00, Free

Sea Change is a sensuous and powerful exhibition of sculpture and mosaics by Susheila Jamieson. The exhibition takes its inspiration from the coast around Prestongrange and Cockenzie Power Station in East Lothian and alludes to the impact of climate change.
Prestongrange Museum, Morrison's Haven, Prestonpans, 0131 653 2904

Music and dance

Theatre

Ceilidh

Comedy

Food & Drink

Miscellaneous

Helping Hands at Harlaw 10:00 Free

As part of the Scottish Biodiversity Week come along to Harlaw House Wildflower Garden and help the ranger service increase the biodiversity of this area.

Harlaw House Visitor Centre, Pentland Hills, EH14 7AS

Monday 26th May

Exhibitions

Derek Robertson Exhibition (1st – 31st May)

Fine art limited prints of his time spent on the Forth Islands
The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick, 01620 890 202

Ferocious and Feathered Exhibition (1st- 31st May)

What do a Tyrannosaurus and a Magpie have in common? Could the terrifying Velociraptor really be related to a chicken? Visit this new exhibition and find out why scientists believe that not all dinosaurs died out and infact are more common than you think. Free with admission to the Discovery Centre.

The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick, 01620 890 202

Music and dance

Talon – The Best of the Eagles 19:30, £14 (£12)

Take it easy with 35 years of Eagles Hits
Brunton Theatre, Ladywell Way, Musselburgh, 0131 665 2240

Lamp of Lothian Trust, 20:00, tickets t.b.a.

Mazaika Quartet in Cabaret
Corn Exchange, Haddington, 01620 823738

For further information on events, please visit www.edinburgh.org

The information contained in this publication is as supplied to VisitScotland and to the best of the organisation's knowledge was correct. VisitScotland can accept no responsibility for any errors or omissions.

Theatre

Ceilidh

Comedy

Food & Drink

Miscellaneous

Tuesday 27th May

Exhibitions

Derek Robertson Exhibition (1st – 31st May)

Fine art limited prints of his time spent on the Forth Islands
The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick,
01620 890 202

Ferocious and Feathered Exhibition (1st-31st May)

What do a Tyrannosaurus and a Magpie have in common? Could the terrifying Velociraptor really be related to a chicken? Visit this new exhibition and find out why scientists believe that not all dinosaurs died out and infact are more common than you think. Free with admission to the Discovery Centre.

The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick,
01620 890 202

Sea Change (3 May – 29 June) 11:00-16:00, Free

Sea Change is a sensuous and powerful exhibition of sculpture and mosaics by Susheila Jamieson. The exhibition takes its inspiration from the coast around Prestongrange and Cockenzie Power Station in East Lothian and alludes to the impact of climate change.
Prestongrange Museum, Morrison's Haven, Prestonpans,
0131 653 2904

Music and dance

Theatre

Ceilidh

Comedy

Food & Drink

Children

The Lion of Kabul 10:15, 13:00, £8.00

For ages 8 plus. Using film, live music and performance, join Marjan as he begins his incredible new in a new and strange country.

Brunton Theatre, Supper Room, Ladywell Way,
Musselburgh, 0131 665 2240

Miscellaneous

Biodiversity Workshop - Bees, Bumbles and Wasps 10:00 Free

Join the ranger service and experts from the Bumble Bee Conservation Trust for a practical ID day with top tips on lifecycles and habitat management.

Vogrie House, Vogrie Country Park, Midlothian

Wednesday 28th May

Exhibitions

Derek Robertson Exhibition (1st – 31st May)

Fine art limited prints of his time spent on the Forth Islands
The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick,
01620 890 202

Ferocious and Feathered Exhibition (1st- 31st May)

What do a Tyrannosaurus and a Magpie have in common? Could the terrifying Velociraptor really be related to a chicken? Visit this new exhibition and find out why scientists believe that not all dinosaurs died out and infact are more common than you think. Free with admission to the Discovery Centre.

The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick,
01620 890 202

Sea Change (3 May – 29 June) 11:00-16:00, Free

Sea Change is a sensuous and powerful exhibition of sculpture and mosaics by Susheila Jamieson. The exhibition takes its inspiration from the coast around Prestongrange and Cockenzie Power Station in East Lothian and alludes to the impact of climate change.
Prestongrange Museum, Morrison's Haven, Prestonpans,
0131 653 2904

Music and dance

Theatre

Ceilidh

Comedy

Food & Drink

Children

The Lion of Kabul 10:15, 13:00, £8.00

For ages 8 plus. Using film, live music and performance, join Marjan as he begins his incredible new in a new and strange country.

Brunton Theatre, Supper Room, Ladywell Way,
Musselburgh, 0131 665 2240

Aesop's Fables, 10:45 & 13:30, £8

For ages 5 plus

Brunton Theatre, Ladywell Way, Musselburgh, 0131 665
2240

Miscellaneous

Thursday 29th May

Exhibitions

Derek Robertson Exhibition (1st – 31st May)

Fine art limited prints of his time spent on the Forth Islands
The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick,
01620 890 202

Ferocious and Feathered Exhibition (1st-31st May)

For further information on events, please visit www.edinburgh.org

The information contained in this publication is as supplied to VisitScotland and to the best of the organisation's knowledge was correct. VisitScotland can accept no responsibility for any errors or omissions.

What do a Tyrannosaurus and a Magpie have in common? Could the terrifying Velociraptor really be related to a chicken? Visit this new exhibition and find out why scientists believe that not all dinosaurs died out and in fact are more common than you think. Free with admission to the Discovery Centre.

The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick, 01620 890 202

Sea Change (3 May – 29 June) 11:00-16:00, Free

Sea Change is a sensuous and powerful exhibition of sculpture and mosaics by Susheila Jamieson. The exhibition takes its inspiration from the coast around Prestongrange and Cockenzie Power Station in East Lothian and alludes to the impact of climate change. Prestongrange Museum, Morrison's Haven, Prestonpans, 0131 653 2904

Music and dance

Theatre

Ceilidh

Comedy

Food & Drink

Children

The Lion of Kabul 10:15, 19:00, £8.00

For ages 8 plus. Using film, live music and performance, join Marjan as he begins his incredible new life in a new and strange country.

Brunton Theatre, Supper Room, Ladywell Way, Musselburgh, 0131 665 2240

Aesop's Fables, 10:45 & 13:30, £8

For ages 5 plus

Brunton Theatre, Ladywell Way, Musselburgh, 0131 665 2240

Miscellaneous

Friday 30TH May

Exhibitions

Derek Robertson Exhibition (1st – 31st May)

Fine art limited prints of his time spent on the Forth Islands
The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick, 01620 890 202

Ferocious and Feathered Exhibition (1st-31st May)

What do a Tyrannosaurus and a Magpie have in common? Could the terrifying Velociraptor really be related to a chicken? Visit this new exhibition and find out why scientists believe that not all dinosaurs died out and in fact are more common than you think. Free with admission to the Discovery Centre.

The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick, 01620 890 202

Sea Change (3 May – 29 June) 11:00-16:00, Free

Sea Change is a sensuous and powerful exhibition of sculpture and mosaics by Susheila Jamieson. The exhibition takes its inspiration from the coast around Prestongrange and Cockenzie Power Station in East Lothian and alludes to the impact of climate change. Prestongrange Museum, Morrison's Haven, Prestonpans, 0131 653 2904

Music and dance

Theatre

Ceilidh

Comedy

Food & Drink

Children

Aesop's Fables, 10:30 & 19:00, £8

For ages 5 plus

Brunton Theatre, Ladywell Way, Musselburgh, 0131 665 2240

Miscellaneous

Musselburgh Race Meeting, door 16:30, £15 (£10)

Forth One Party Night. Flat race meeting

Musselburgh Race Course, Linkfield Road, Musselburgh, 0131 665 2859

Saturday 31st May

Exhibitions

Derek Robertson Exhibition (1st – 31st May)

Fine art limited prints of his time spent on the Forth Islands
The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick, 01620 890 202

Ferocious and Feathered Exhibition (1st-31st May)

What do a Tyrannosaurus and a Magpie have in common? Could the terrifying Velociraptor really be related to a chicken? Visit this new exhibition and find out why scientists believe that not all dinosaurs died out and in fact are more common than you think. Free with admission to the Discovery Centre.

The Scottish Seabird Centre, The Harbour, North Berwick, 01620 890 202

Sea Change (3 May – 29 June) 11:00-16:00, Free

Sea Change is a sensuous and powerful exhibition of sculpture and mosaics by Susheila Jamieson. The exhibition takes its inspiration from the coast around Prestongrange and Cockenzie Power Station in East Lothian and alludes to the impact of climate change. Prestongrange Museum, Morrison's Haven, Prestonpans, 0131 653 2904

Music and dance

Jock Johnson 21.30 Free

Jock Johnson are a lively but still laid back acoustic covers band.

The Victoria Inn, 35, The Brae, Auchendinny, nr Penicuik, Midlothian, EH26 0QU

For further information on events, please visit www.edinburgh.org

The information contained in this publication is as supplied to VisitScotland and to the best of the organisation's knowledge was correct. VisitScotland can accept no responsibility for any errors or omissions.

Linlithgow Jazz Club- Jeff Barnhart, piano (USA) with the West End Jazz Band 20:00

Membership subscriptions for 2008 (£5.00 single or double) can be paid on your first visit to the club in 2008. Please phone 01506 848821 for individual prices of events.
Burgh Halls, Linlithgow

Theatre

Ceilidh

Comedy

Food & Drink

Children

The Lion of Kabul 11:15, 14:00, £8.00

For ages 8 plus. Using film, live music and performance, join Marjan as he begins his incredible new in a new and strange country.

Brunton Theatre, Supper Room, Ladywell Way, Musselburgh, 0131 665 2240

Aesop's Fables, 10:45 & 13:30, £8

For ages 5 plus

Brunton Theatre, Ladywell Way, Musselburgh, 0131 665 2240

Miscellaneous

For further information on events , please visit www.edinburgh.org

The information contained in this publication is as supplied to VisitScotland and to the best of the organisation's knowledge was correct. VisitScotland can accept no responsibility for any errors or omissions.

Live well. Live long. Recycle. 